Held for More Evidence.

Willie Golns, a negro, we held by Justice Cruichfield yesterday in the Pottlie Court on the charge of selling co-caine. Enough evidence to convict was not forthcoming, and the prosecution asked that the man be held until more was gotten. Justice Crutchfield decided that the negro was a suspicious character, at any rate, and put him under bond for $500. Heing unable to put up the money, Golns went to juil until Menday, when the case will be milled again.

STEAMER AGROUND: CREW

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I. November 3.—The steamer Turret Bell, remained fast aground to-day off Cablehead, on the north coast of the Island. The storm continues and the leavy seas have made it impossible for the captain. Its wife and crew to come ashore, of for a boat to be sent out to the steamer. A message from Captain Maroussin asking that the owners of the vessel be notified and that assistance be sent jumiediately, came ashore in a bottle. No casualties were mentioned.
